Riann Mullis just completed her second season as Head Coach for The Eagles. This season brought 10 wins, making it the most successful season for CSC Volleyball since 2007. Mullis and her team were also only one win shy of making it to The Conference Tournament. Seniors Emily Bruce and Gabriela Varela received All—Conference recognition. Prior to Chadron State Mullis was Head Coach at Cowley College.

A former NCAA Division II student-athlete at Pittsburg State University, Mullis was a part of two NJCAA Championship seasons while at Cowley, and one runner-up finish. In 2012, she was named the American Volleyball Coaches Association Two-Year College Assistant Coach of the Year.

In her five seasons with the program, Cowley College volleyball won over 85 percent of their matches compiling a record of 167-29. As a head coach, Mullis went 56-22 (17-1 conference), earning two conference and two district championships, and she finished both seasons among the top six teams at the national tournament. She was named the Jayhawk Conference East Division Co-Coach of the Year in 2014, her very first year as a head coach.

As a player, Mullis was an all-conference and all-district libero at Neosho County Community College. After playing two seasons at Neosho County, she transferred to NCAA Division II Pittsburg State, where she served as a defensive specialist and helped
