A native of Berthoud, Colorado, Jennifer joins the CSC volleyball staff after eight seasons as the head coach at Sheridan College in Wyoming. At Sheridan since 2011, she led the Generals to the 2017 Region IX North title match, three semifinal appearances, and three consecutive 20-win seasons from 2012 to 2014. Her team's runner-up finish in 2017 was the program's highest since 2006.

Many of Stadler's volleyball student-athletes not only succeeded on the court but off it as well. In eight seasons she coached 14 All-Region players, 18 All-Conference, 13 All-Tournament, one National Player of the Week, and three Liberos of the Year in Region IX North. In addition, 21 players went on to receive scholarships at four-year schools. In the academic arena she has graduated 37 players, and helped her student-athletes to 20 Academic All-Region, 13 Academic All-America, and one Sheridan College Student of the Year honor.

Besides coaching volleyball, Stadler wore several other hats at Sheridan. Her other titles included fitness center director, adjunct professor, and assistant athletic director, which she took on four years ago. As an administrator with the Generals athletic department, she had a role in guiding head coaches with rules compliance, assisting fundraising efforts, and admitting international student-athletes.

Stadler's coaching career began at her alma mater Black Hills State University in 2008, where she won a conference title as an assistant in her first year before moving into a role as Interim Head Coach in 2010. That year, the athletics program at BHSU began its three-year transition into NCAA Division II. She was 13-20 as head coach that season, finishing third in the Dakota Athletic Conference.

In nine years of head coaching, Stadler carries a career win-loss record of 143-162 at two stops.

Stadler played college volleyball for two seasons at Laramie County Community College, where she was a conference MVP as well as All-Conference, All-Region, and All-Tournament both seasons at setter. She finished in 2007 at BHSU as a two-year starter, and she led her team in digs per game and passing percentage.

She received a bachelor's degree in human services and sociology from BHSU in 2008, and later earned her master's degree in strategic leadership while coaching there in 2011.

Stadler has a stepson Landon, 14, a six-year old son Easton, and two year-old son Kanyon, with her husband, Josh.

Chadron State Volleyball Team Camp Details

The second annual Chadron State Volleyball Team Camp will focus on team training and effective form & techniques for ball control in all court positions. Teams will focus on effective offensive and defensive strategies specific to their needs. Coach Mullis will communicate with each High School Head Coach on customization options for their team's preferred skills/training and accommodations will be made when possible. Each team will have the opportunity to work with current CSC Volleyball Coaches and Athletes on essential training techniques. Team training sessions and outside competition will be provided for all participating teams.
